GOLDKLANG GROUP CPAs, P.C.
1801 Robert Fulton Drive, Suite 200
Reston, Virginia 20191

Dear Auditors:

The representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements of Tanyard Springs Homeowners Association, Inc. which comprise the balance sheet as of December 31, 2019, and the related statements of income, members' equity and cash flows for the ten months then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, for the purpose of expressing an opinion as to whether the financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, the following representations made to you during your audit:

Financial Statements

- We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter, including our responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements. In regard to the non-attest services outlined in our engagement letter to be performed by you, we have –
  - Assumed all management responsibilities.
  - Designated an individual with suitable skill, knowledge, or experience to oversee the services.
  - Evaluated the adequacy and results of the services performed.
  - Accepted responsibility for the results of the services.
- The financial statements referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with U.S. GAAP.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.
- Significant assumptions we used in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable.
- Related party relationships and transactions have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.

- We are in agreement with the adjusting journal entries you have proposed, and they have been posted to the Association's accounts, if appropriate.
- ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606) Section A – Summary and Amendments that Create Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606) and Other Assets and Deferred Costs - with Customers (Subtopics 340-40) has been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with FASB ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. All contracts underlying revenue recognized in the financial statements have commercial substance and have been approved by appropriate parties. We have considered side agreements, implied promises, and unstated customary business practices in identifying performance obligations in the contracts. We have implemented the new accounting standard in accordance with the transition guidance prescribed in the ASU. We have sufficient and appropriate documentation supporting all estimates and judgements underlying the amounts recorded and disclosed in the financial statements.
- We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and we have not consulted a lawyer concerning pending litigation, claims, or assessments.
- Significant estimates and material concentrations have been properly disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the Association is contingently liable, have been properly recorded or disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- Transfers or designations of equity balance or inter-equity borrowings have been properly authorized and approved and have been properly recorded or disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- Uncollectible inter-equity loans have been properly accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

Information Provided

- We have provided you with:
  - Access to all information, of which we are aware, that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as records, documentation, and other matters.
  - Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit.
  - Unrestricted access to persons within the Association from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence.
- We have fully disclosed to you all terms of contracts that affect the amount and timing of revenue recognized in the financial statements, including price adjustments, side agreements, implicit provisions, unstated customary business practices, or other arrangements (written or oral).
- We have provided you with minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors.
- We have provided you with communications from regulatory agencies concerning noncompliance with, or deficiencies in, financial reporting practices, if any.
- All material transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.

- We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
- We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the Association and involves:
  - Management,
  - Employees who have significant roles in internal control, or
  - Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
- We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Association's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, regulators, or others.
- We have no knowledge of any instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.
- We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and we have not consulted a lawyer concerning pending litigation, claims, or assessments.
- We have disclosed to you the identity of the Association's related parties and all the related party relationships and transactions of which we are aware.
- Except as made known to you and disclosed in the notes to the financial statements, the Association has satisfactory title to all owned assets, and there are no liens or encumbrances on such assets nor has any asset been pledged as collateral. If applicable, we have reviewed our long lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances have indicated that the carrying amount of assets might not be recoverable and have appropriately recorded the adjustment.
- Assessments receivable recorded in the financial statements represent valid claims against debtors for assessments or other charges arising on or before the balance sheet date and have been reduced to their estimated net realizable value.
- We have reviewed with our insurance agent the adequacy of our insurance coverage, including compliance with any statutory or documentary requirements.
- We acknowledge our responsibilities for presenting the required supplementary information (RSI) in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The RSI is measured and presented within prescribed guidelines, and the methods of measurement and presentation have not changed from those used in the prior period. We have disclosed to you any significant assumptions and interpretations underlying the measurement and presentation of the RSI. The Association had a study conducted in 2019. Amounts accumulated in the replacement reserves may or may not be adequate to meet all future needs for major repairs and replacements. If additional funds are needed, the Board of Directors, on behalf of the Association may increase regular assessments, pass special assessments, or delay major repairs and replacements until funds are available.
- We understand that the Association is responsible for the choice of income tax filing method and the consequences thereof. The Association's allocation of expenses against exempt and nonexempt function income conforms to IRS rules, which require that the allocation be made "on a reasonable basis." We have adequately documented such allocation.

- We have disclosed to you all material events, if any, that would require adjustments to, or disclosure in, the financial statements. In addition, we represent that no other material events have occurred since you completed your audit fieldwork on June 30, 2020 and through the date of this letter. Examples of material events include, but are not limited to, contracts for replacement reserve expenditures, losses due to a fire, changes in ongoing litigation or new litigation and approval of special assessments. Material events that have occurred are:
